Privacy

We prioritise the protection of your privacy and confidentiality. And like all visitors to our site, you are entitled to know we handle personal data. So, kindly refer to our Privacy Policy for details about what information we collect and how we manage such information.

Terms of Use

We simplify complex trading information and decisions to help our readers have confidence when deciding on what trading platforms to use.

We don’t charge our services to you. But we acknowledge we have contractual relationships with the Brokers listed on this site and receive payments in the form of commission from these Brokers and their affiliates when you click on the ‘view website’ options on each comparison page.

We also acknowledge that:

- Some information shown on the site is not by us, but the brokers and DailyInvesting may not have verified such information;

- We don't have automatic updates from brokers since we procure information manually, so it is easy to miss recent changes at the brokerage companies.
- We may base comparisons on facts, but the choice is sometimes subjective, and you should only consider it an opinion.
- Our contents only intend to inform and are not statements of the law, regulation, or governmental policy.
- Unless otherwise stated, the site displays prices, including spreads and rolling fees, in USD (American dollars).
- DailyInvesting has a strict editorial policy and does its best to ensure no inaccuracies. Still, we cannot guarantee it. So, please bring this to our attention when you spot such errors.

Limitation of Liability

Kindly note that trading, whether Foreign Exchange or CFDs products, is inherently risky and may cause you to suffer loss. DailyInvesting does not provide personalised trading or investment advisory services. A qualified professional may contribute here, but that doesn't qualify their pieces as professional opinions. DailyInvesting is not liable for any losses from using the information from this site.

Our content is only to provide general information but not investment advice. Thus, the content here doesn't relegate your due diligence on the broker's product disclosure statements and the suitability of any CFDs or Foreign Exchange products.

We make no guarantees on the thoroughness, accuracy, or quality of the information on this site as the information we provide on this site is only on an "AS-IS" and "AS AVAILABLE" basis at the user's own risk.

We may affiliate with a listed product or service reviewed on this site. We may receive compensation when you click on an "Open Account" button, a hyperlink on the product's name, or if you sign up for the product or service. In the wake of this information, we exclude, to the extent permitted by the law, any warranties:

- On the accuracy, completeness of information, or the timeliness on any of the listed broker or third party sites or the quality of the results obtained from those sites;
- That the sites or their servers are free from defects, viruses, malware, or any other harmful components; and
- That these sites will be uninterrupted or error-free.

Neither DailyInvesting, nor our employees, contractors, or agents, will be liable for any direct or indirect loss or damage to you or the entity you represent, whether caused by negligence or otherwise arising in connection with your use of, or inability to use, our service or your reliance upon any of our content or any other information on the site.

You are solely liable and agree to indemnify us against any action, claim, liability, damage, or loss proceeding expense (including but not limited to legal costs) suffered or incurred by us, whether directly or indirectly, in connection with your non-observance or breach of any of these Terms and Conditions.
